8 Luxury Condos With Jaw-Dropping Fitness Amenities

Eustacia Huen, CONTRIBUTOR

Gone were the days when so-called residential gyms were basically poorly lit rooms with couple treadmills in the basement. Nowadays, luxury properties have a wide variety of fitness amenities that could likely entice sports fanatics to lose their gym memberships. Wonder what are the most jaw dropping ones in the States? Consider these.

#8: THE SHEPHARD (NEW YORK CITY)

Enjoy the best of old-school West Village charm and modern amenities in The Shephard, which has a 1,200-square foot fitness gym, golf simulator room, a versatile sports court with basketball hoop, rock climbing bouldering wall, and a movement studio with cutting edge Pilates equipment such as reformer, Wunda chair system, Cadillac and ladder barrel, among others. With a luxurious resident spa and on-site concierge, residents could easily get in-house personal training, private Pilates classes, massages and physical therapies tailored to their needs.
